

Faculty Survey

Survey Period: October – December, 2011

Sample Size: 119 (approx. 20% of all AVC faculty at that time)

Use and opinion of the Library by Faculty

Statement	Percent Who Agreed
I integrate research assignments into my classes.	63%
I create assignments that require research.	70%
I use the Library to prepare for classes.	48%
I use the Library for personal enrichment.	54%
I regularly assign the Library's tutorials.	14%
I regularly assign the Library's walking tour.	9%
I work with librarians to recommend purchasing materials.	30%
I use the Library's book collection.	22%
I use the Library's databases.	21%
I use the Library's textbook reserve collection.	19%
I use the Library's reference collection.	10%
I recommend students use the Library's electronic resources.	73%
I recommend students use the Library's print resources.	74%
Using the Library is necessary for students to be successful in my classes.	61%
Experience using the Library is important for student success.	96%
I consider myself to be an advocate for the Library.	91%
Librarians have the knowledge & experience to help my students.	94%
The Library's databases are "excellent" or "good".	65%
The Library's print book collection is "excellent" or "good".	38%
Librarians do a good job teaching research skills.	91%

I am not able to teach research skills effectively.	61%
Information literacy is necessary for student success.	96%
I use Research Methods Workshops	15%