DISCUSSION ITEMS

President Terrance Myers proposed that in the future, he would prefer to see more of ASO working together.

Dr. Zimmerman said that she was impressed by the papers the students who went to NCSL and General Assembly turned in, and that they show potential.

Vice President of Club Affairs, Edward Oquendo said that when he went to General Assembly, he was motivated to have ASO donate money to the next General Assembly. President Terrance Myers replied that we can help with General Assembly if there's an event they need help with. Anthony Bell felt that we should not just hand out our money.

ASO PRESENTATIONS

None

ACTION ITEMS

5.1 ASO Committees and Appointments

None.

5.2 ASO Events

There will be a future retreat for ASO to go through training.

There will be future workshops for ASO to connect with the students on campus. Anthony Bell proposed that we should make this an efficient event, such as with a theme. Cierra Parker said she would help.

Dr. Zimmerman proposed that ASO should allocate funds to give Coach Jane Cwayna a gift.

ASO decided to have gold passes/cards that can be given to faculty who retire. Giovanna Sanchez moved to reinstate the gold card for the faculty who are retiring, seconded by Keziah Arnold. Motion passed 6/0/0.

Giovanna Sanchez asked for a point of privilege at 1:20 P.M.

Anthony Bell talked about holding another Student Appreciation Day in the Spring.

5.3 Grand Proposals

None

5.4 Student Advocacy

Edward Oquendo said that he would like to make sure ASO is well trained.

IV. REPORTS

Advisor's Report

Dr. Zimmerman said that due to Proposition 30 passing, the pool will be reopened in the spring, and intersession 2013 classes will be held. This proposition also increased the revenue for health services because more students will register and pay the fee, so we should be expecting more students for the upcoming year, therefore we will have more student stickers for sale. Finally she said that ASO will have more activities for the student body to engage in and the Student Lounge remodeling is coming up on December 3rd.

Executive Board Reports-

President Terrance Myers said that he enjoyed his time at NCSL, and that his learning experience will benefit him for the rest of ASO and for the workshops that are coming up. He also thanked the advisors for making it possible to go to NCSL because he sees it as an advantage ASO can benefit from.

Vice President Edward Oquendo thanked ASO for giving him the opportunity to be in ICC. He said that the last ICC meeting will be held on Thursday November 29 at 4pm.

Senator:

Counseling and Matriculation and Enrollment Services – Cierra Parker said that she learned a lot at NCSL that she could bring back to ASO to make up for her absence. Her plan is to enhance the activity in ASO by having events that gets ASO and the student body involved.

Social and Behavioral Sciences and Business, Computer Studies and Economic Development – Anthony Bell proposed that for next semester, spring 2013, we should sell the ASO stickers online. Dr. Zimmerman said that we can market the stickers online but she is not sure that we can sell them and advised him to make a marketing plan and to talk with others on campus about the on line ticket sale.
