Recommendation for Changes to the Corporate and Community Service (CCS) Process

D.L. Wiewall

Amend the guidelines to include a statement that allows for the respective division and the discipline faculty to develop an internal process to review CCS course proposals. My recommendation is to minimally revise sections 3, 5, 6, and 7.

3) the Dean for Corporate and Community Services then sends the Corporate and Community Services Offerings Outline form to the appropriate division department chair who consult with the appropriate discipline faculty. The faculty will have XX number of days to review the course proposal and submit their comments/critiques/approval, etc. to the Department Chair.

5) if the faculty have no concerns or questions, they will sign off on the offering(s) and return the form(s) to the Department Chair who will forward it to the division dean and the AP&P representative for approval and then to the Dean for Corporate and Community Services;

6) if the faculty, division dean, or the AP&P representative have concerns or questions, they will meet with the Dean for Corporate and Community Services to discuss their concerns or questions and present suggestions for revision;

7) the faculty, division dean and the AP&P representative then have the right to approve the offering or not; if approved, signatures are required on the form;

- Please note that the approved change to require CCS to submit a bi-annual memo will be added to this portion of the document.
- In addition, the committee may wish to review and revise this entire section of the handbook.

Course description: Have you ever wanted to be the voice everyone hears on TV and radio commercials, or documentary or audiobook narrations? You too can become a Professional Voiceover Artist! This fun, informative, and empowering class will teach you the basics of the voice over industry to help you decide if it is something you'd like to pursue. We will discuss the many different types of voiceovers and what it takes to get started as a voice actor. Your voice will be recorded as you read from real scripts so you can receive a professional voice evaluation later. In this 2 hour introductory class you will learn what it takes to become a part of this fun and exciting industry. Be warned, many who have taken this class have gone on to become real, bona-fide, professional Voice Actors. Come ready to laugh, learn, and be inspired...

The Voices For All Voice Coaches are known for their fun and informative presenting methods. Our Coaches have many years' experience in the Voiceover Industry, and are masters at teaching all of the information pertinent to making it in Voice Acting. Whether it be speaking, presenting, writing, producing, or announcing, Voices For All has it covered. With hundreds of Regional & National Commercials, and Public Service Announcements under their belts, our instructors not only deliver the highest quality education and coaching to their students, but their unique enthusiasm and expertise bring an element of fun and excitement to the classroom as well.

INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHY: Mike Elmore, Voice Coach/Instructor/Producer, has been a professional Voice Actor since 1983. He has performed Voiceovers for clients such as Stridex, McDonalds, Dodge, T-Mobile, Motrin, Hasbro, TGI Fridays, and All My Children (trailer, ABC). Mike worked in radio all the way from the wheat fields of Kansas, to the major market of Los Angeles, Ca. Mike has also performed as an Actor in a Prime Time TV Series, and toured the U.S. as a musician. He brings with him an incredible collection of experiences and stories that are invaluable in giving a needed insight to his students. Besides working as a Professional Voice Actor, Mike's passion is teaching Aspiring Voice Actors. He has a great ability to encourage and empower his students to put their best foot forward, and has many tricks up his sleeve to get the most out of everyone.

Leah Frederick, Voice Coach/Instructor/Producer, is a testament to the success of VFA training. An alumnae of VFA's Introduction to Voice Acting and Master Class, Leah has provided voiceovers for radio and TV commercials, educational narrations, apps, auto-attendants, and even a Nintendo video game! She's also a featured singer on a solfegge training module and several music CDs for children. However, her real passion is Audiobook Narration. A seasoned narrator, she has recorded over forty audiobooks in a variety of genres including romance, sci-fi, self-help, and children's. As one of VFA's many success stories, Leah's training and experience provide her students with a unique and invaluable perspective into the world of voiceovers. With enthusiasm, energy, and a lot of laughter, Leah's goal is to make each of her classes informative and FUN!

Aaron Fischer, Voice Coach/Instructor/Producer has a near obsession with voices. Heavily influenced in his childhood by the popular cartoons of the day, he was mesmerized by the subtle differences between the characters' sounds and deliveries. Even as a youth, he grasped the fact that tension, joy, fear, excitement, or love could all be conveyed through the manner in which a single word was enunciated. This intrigued him, and from those early beginnings, he was hooked. Aaron is a graduate of VFA's Master Class and loves to talk about his experiences. He is enthusiastic about the voiceover industry and loves to pass that energy on to his students, with the goal of showing each and every one of them that the field has great deal to offer. His upbeat and direct manner of instruction fosters an atmosphere of enjoyment and openness.

René Morales, Voice Coach/Instructor, teaches introduction classes in the central Midwest region. René graduated from the VFA Master Class many years ago and started her own voiceover business. Having the inside scoop on all things related to Voices For All, René is an excellent resource to ask about the Master Class training and technical support programs that VFA has to offer. René's easy-going, laid-back demeanor is a ruse which can be instantly shredded just by mentioning pugs; World Series champions from the state of Missouri; Harry Potter, or anything having to do with presidential elections. Having fulfilled her single bucket list item of seeing the band Rush get inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2013, she's now looking for new bucket list items to pursue.

Scott Wallace, Voice Coach/Instructor, is a Connecticut native who now makes his home in Seattle, WA. With a successful decade working in professional and major collegiate athletics under his belt, his career path seemed clear. Still, he had a passion for creativity and a curiosity about the voice over industry. People would often remark on the clear and versatile sound of his voice. After signing up for and attending one of our Introduction to Voice Overs classes, Scott decided to dip his toe in the voiceover ocean. Scott worked closely with his Voices For All coaches, Eric Hunt and Mike Elmore, learning how to market himself, manage his time, and produce high quality work. Scott now finds himself a full-time voiceover pro! He has produced projects for clients such as Liberty Mutual Insurance, the United States Army, Cisco Systems and many more... Scott just might be a voice in your favorite video-game!

Matt Martin, Voice Coach/Instructor, is a Washington State native with a working background in the financial industry, who now resides in Palm Springs. With the growing number of Internet based, financial services websites he found himself thinking of a career change. In less than three years after launching his voiceover business, Matt has had great success with several national brands such as Dial, Oracle, Mercedes Benz, Cabela's, Monsanto Corp and Kobalt Tools, among others. Matt can also be heard in promotional spots for National Geographic; doing narration for The Sportsman Channel and Outdoor Channel and movie and game trailers for Oblivion, Race to Witch Mountain and Zombie Apocalypse.
