Alpha Iota is asking for $450 for their upcoming fall convention (October 27 at Golden Cost College) which will cover the cost of the registration fee to attend the conference which will include the cost of the workshops, busses for 13 students and 2 advisors. Discussion about how Alpha Iota gives back to ASO concluding the benefits each organization provides amongst each other. It was agreed that Alpha Iota will participate in the Leadership Workshop and that Alpha Iota needs to complete the Grant Proposal paperwork before the conference.

Edward Oquendo move to approve the amount of $450 to fund the registration fee for Alpha Iota's fall convention, seconded by Irene Montalban. Motion passed 7/0/0.

III. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Elaine Tsai brought up the matter of where ASO stands considering the acquiring of ASO parking permits. Dr. Zimmerman mentioned that due to past misuse of parking permits from many people on campus, not associated with ASO this issues has not been resolved yet, and ASO won't be benefitting from this perk in the meantime.

Edward Oquendo suggested ASO puts forth two grants for 2 Oshers Scholarship benefiting those amongst Antelope Valley College who meet the qualifications. He also recommend that ASO sets aside other amount of money. He asked for this item to be put on next week's agenda.

Alvaro Wong asked if ASO had already purchased a sound system for ASO because he believes he can get a better package for half the cost of the previous sound system that was said to be purchased. Dr. Zimmerman stated that no sound system has yet to be purchased.

Sandra Govin mentioned that she received two grants each for $1000 and another grant of $500 from Wal-Mart for the ASO Hearts and Hands Pantry. She asked to sign two cards to show ASO's appreciation for their generous donations.

Giovanna Sanchez wanted to know where the situation of opening or closing Antelope Valley College's pool stood. Terrance mentioned ASO is looking to set up an appointment with the Interim Dean of Kinesiology so that he can give us an input over there about if there is anything we can do. Elaine Tsai said she was at the AP&P meeting where discussion was held, stating that the closure of the pool was set for the next two years.

Anthony Bell reviewed last week's football game stating that only two people showed up and he would like to make a list of people who are interested in working the next game. A sign up list was sent around.

IV. ASO PRESENTATIONS.

Mathew Keef and Alvaro Wong were expected to present this meeting on October 12, 2012, however, due to Mathew Keef's absence, the presentation has been postpone to next week's meeting on October 19, 2012.

V. ACTION ITEMS

4.1 ASO Appointments

Terrance stated that Roman Velazquez, Senator of the Mathematics, Science and Engineering Department has resigned.

Elaine Tsai moved to approve the impeachment process of ASO's Treasurer Gracy Estrada due to her lack of attendance, seconded by Reiana Paul. Motion passed 7/0/0.

4.2 ASO Events

Leadership Workshop - Terrance announced that since no facility requests have been turned in and the workshops won't be taking place today October 12, 2012 until ASO is familiar with the process of the facility request. Discussion about advertising the workshops so that more students will show up was talked over.

Facility Request - Terrance stated that he would like to have some type of training to do facility requests so that this won't be an issue when planning to do events. Sandra recommended that this should be one of the topics for the leadership workshop and Rieana volunteered to help out with the procedure of the workshop.

Rieana Paul moved to approve the Leadership Workshops to take place on November 16, 2012 from 2pm-4pm, seconded by Anthony Bell. Motion passed 7/0/0.

Conferences – A Discussion about the General Assembly was brought up vs. attending the National Center for Student Leadership. The four reflective essays that were turned in by students to attend the National Center for Student leadership were reviewed acknowledging the benefits of going to this event. There was a debate over who should go to NCSL and/or the General Assembly. Edward suggested that those who turned in their essays, go to NCSL, while giving the rest of the members take the opportunity to attend the General Assembly. It was agreed that Edward Oquendo, Sandra Govin, Elaine Tsai and Michael Eyes will attend General Assembly and Terrence Myers, Rieana Paul, Alvero Wong, Cierra parker will attend NCSL.

Homecoming - Rieana Paul confirmed the Homecoming schedule for next week including the members of ASO and Alpha Iota.
